

Lead Sponsor

Supporting Sponsor

Raising the bar on Process Safety Management National Strategy Launch

Church House Conference Centre, Westminster
15 March 2012 (1000 – 1630 hrs)

10:30	Introduction and outline of the day	Philip Jones, CEO, Skills Academy
10:40	The journey so far - a background to the Process Safety Management project, the commitment from industry and stakeholders and the early success of Process Safety Leadership for Senior Executives	Allan Laing, Process Safety Management Board Chair and CEO, Pentagon
11:00	Industry case study	Terry Thistlethwaite, Vice President Group SHE, Croda International plc
11:15	Industry case study	Dave Topcliffe, Manufacturing Manager, Shell Chemicals UK Limited
11:30	Introducing a National Strategy for Process Safety Management performance improvement at COMAH/High Hazard sites	Steve Elliott, CEO, Chemical Industries Association
11:50	Setting the workshop objectives	Joanna Woolf, CEO, Cogent SSC
12:00	Influencing the strategy for PSM Competence: workshop sessions (Coffee available in workshop rooms)	PSM Project Board
13:20	Lunch
14:20	A view from the UK Process Industry	Tom Crotty, Director of INEOS
14:40	A perspective from the Chair of the All-Party Parliamentary Group for the Chemical Industry	Esther McVey MP for Wirral West PPS to the Rt Hon Chris Grayling Minister for Employment
15:00	Workshop Feedback and Q&A	Joanna Woolf, CEO, Cogent SSC
15:40	Closing speech	Judith Hackitt CBE, HSE Chair
16:10	Close	Allan Laing, Process Safety Management Board Chair and CEO, Pentagon

